

What is a Parish Mission?

Many of our older parishioners will remember the Parish Mission preached by a member of a Religious Community whose specialty was preaching missions. It was held for a week and was a time of renewal for the parish.

The Parish mission concept has not changed, but it is dressed a little differently

We are having a Parish Mission

The Mission will begin with a special homily preached by the Missioner at all the Liturgies on the Weekend of March 10th & 11th

The Mission will be held each evening at 7:00pm

We are very fortunate to have as our Missioner the Most Rev. Harry J. Flynn, Bishop Emeritus of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul, Minnesota.
